

NABPAC Elects 2025 Board of Directors and Executive Officers

January 30, 2025, Washington, DC – The National Association of Business Political Action Committees (NABPAC), the country’s only non-profit trade association dedicated to promoting, defending, and professionalizing PACs and political action professionals, announced that it has elected its new Board of Directors and Executive Committee officers for 2025.

Kipp Maloney, Vice President of Political, Development, Grassroots and Compliance at the National Federation of Independent Business (NFIB), was elected Board Chair, succeeding Bridget Sewell, Vice President, American Property Casualty Insurance Association (APCIA).

“Kipp is an outstanding leader in the political engagement community and will be a strong partner and advocate as NABPAC continues its mission to promote and protect employee-funded and association PACs,” said Micaela Isler, President and CEO of NABPAC. “I’m excited to work with him as we position NABPAC for continued success. I’m also grateful for Bridget’s leadership in 2024, as NABPAC hit many milestones and achieved our goals on behalf of our members. We continue to grow as an organization and have been able to educate more people about how business and association PACs are the most transparent, regulated, and accountable form of political speech.”

The executive committee consists of Maloney as Chair; John Mason (Altria) as Vice Chair; Lauren Colicelli (ACLI) as Secretary; Joe Manion (American Waterways Operators) as Treasurer; and Betsy Strong (CVS) as at-large member.

“NABPAC has built strong momentum over the past several years, and I’m honored to be able to continue what Bridget and our other former Board Chairs have accomplished. We have an opportunity in 2025 to position NABPAC for growth and success, while continuing to offer the resources and programming that our members need for their roles as leaders in the PAC space. I’m looking forward to working with the Executive Committee, our new and returning Board members, Micaela, and the staff to drive a consequential year for NABPAC and a bright future for our association.”
